

Ambassador Kaitani's Farewell Meeting with the Speaker of the Parliament

On 19 July, Ambassador Toshio Kaitani paid a farewell call on Speaker of the Parliament Irakli Kobakhidze. The Speaker emphasized that Japan and Georgia have built good relations and extended his appreciation for Japan's assistance to Georgia and the Ambassador's personal contributions in developing the bilateral relation. Ambassador Kaitani noted with pleasure the development of close relations between Japan-Georgia during the last 25 years and Japan's readiness for continuing and strengthening friendship and corporation with Georgia in the future.

(The photos have been provided by the Parliament of Georgia.)

Parliament of Georgia

<http://www.parliament.ge/en/parlamentarebi/chairman/chairmannews/irakli-kobakhidze-saqartveloshi-iaponiis-elchtan-gamosamshvidobebeli-shexvedra-gamarta.page>